Ann Ruston, Shadow Minister for Health and Aged Care addressed the meeting.

She said that there was a changing environment in aged care. People now expected improved quality. The big question is “are we going to afford it”? Supporting aging in place is an aim. It is difficult to work out the needs of people and the financial calculations when deciding. Currently there is a shortfall of 68,000 in packages. The task is great, and much discussion is needed. The speaker accepted questions.

CLOSURE. The meeting closed at 2.07 pm.

NEXT MEETING will be held on 24 August 2024 and members were asked to check the notice for information.
